Roger Williams University School of Law
Certification of Graduation Writing Requirement

_____has completed the graduation research and writing requirement by writing an individually authored paper (or papers) that reflects substantial legal research; presents a legal argument that is well-developed, organized, and supported; is at least 5500 words long; and is of sufficient quality to earn a grade of "C" or higher. See Student Handbook §710. The upper level research and writing requirement for this student was satisfied in the following manner:

☐ A directed research paper or papers under Section 705 of this Code;

☐ A paper or papers submitted in a seminar or course in which the paper or papers in total count for at least one-half of the final course grade;

Course or Seminar:_____Year & Term: _____

☐ A paper supervised by a professor or director submitted to acquire or maintain Law Review membership;

TITLE OF PAPER OR PAPERS:

_____

_____

Dates of Completion: _____

Certifying Professor or Dean:_____ _____
print name clearly signature

Date Received by Office of Student Finance and Records: _____

Revised: May 6, 2015